Saturday was Spud's birthday. All the members of the family were busy preparing a party for Spud. They invited Spud's aunts, cousins and a few friends. They wanted Spud to have a very big party that afternoon. 3

Everyone was very excited that morning. Grandmother Lizzie had woken very early that morning to collect dewdrops. Spud loved to drink dewdrops. Uncle Bugzie had collected the best young grass blades for the delicious grass salad which he was going to prepare for the guests. Father Boozie went out to look for tiny red berries because they were juicy and sweet. His three sisters and five brothers built a shed for the party. 6 9

Sadly for Spud, that day did not seem good for him.

Section I: Comprehension Open-ended (5 X 2m)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.
Answer in complete sentences.

It was a Sunday. Jo, Lili and Meng spent the afternoon in the park.

While they were playing, they found a handbag on a bench. They picked up the handbag and opened it. There were two hundred dollars and an identity card in it. 3

The three children wondered what they should do with it. At last, Meng suggested that they should hand the handbag over to the police. All three of them thought it was a good idea. 6

On the way to the nearest police station, the children met an old woman. She was anxiously looking for something. The children went up to her and asked what she was looking for. The old woman told the children that she had lost her handbag. The children realized that the handbag they had found was hers. Moreover, the old woman looked exactly like the woman in the photograph on the identity card. The three honest children returned the handbag to the surprised old woman. The old woman was so grateful that she wanted to reward them with some money, but the children refused to accept any. She praised them for their honesty. 9 12 15

51. What did the three children find in the handbag?

52. What did they decide to do?

53. How did the children know that the handbag belonged to the old woman?

54. Which sentence in the story tells you that the woman needed to find her handbag?
