Once upon a time, there was an old fisherman. He worked very hard so that he could afford to give his family a comfortable life. He set out for work early in the morning hoping for a good catch. He threw in his net, and after a while, he felt a strong tug. There was something in the net! However, to his disappointment, all he caught was an old basket filled with rubbish.

"Oh, Fortune!" he cried, "~~have~~ ^{children} mercy on me! I have a wife and three small mouths to feed at home. Please let me get a good catch today."

He threw in his net once more. This time, he had to use all his strength to haul the catch. It was only a small, black pot. Though he was in disbelief, he was curious to know what was in the pot. Carefully, he opened it. A huge cloud of blue smoke escaped from the pot! A genie appeared and thundered, "How dare you disturb my sleep! I shall kill you!" The fisherman's blood turned to ice. He shivered in fear and was unable to move. He had to think of a plan fast.

"Great and Mighty Genie! Before you kill me, show me your magic powers of transforming so that you can fit into such a small pot." The genie was pleased that someone admired his magical powers so he transformed himself into blue smoke and went back into the ~~bottle~~ ^{pot}. The fisherman closed the pot immediately. He threw the pot back into the sea and went home happily.
