Cindy loves going to school. She has many friends who plays and eats with her during recess. She chooses what she wants to eat from the canteen. She also takes a bus home all by herself every day. She feels like an adult when she does those things.

Last year, when Cindy was in Primary Three, her teacher introduced a new student to the class. Her name was Nadia. Nadia was frightened and refused to say anything to her new classmates. Some of Cindy's friends thought that Nadia was proud, so they refused to play with her during recess.

Cindy knew that Nadia was shy being in a new school. She decided to be Nadia's friend. She said, "First, let me take you around the canteen during recess. After eating, I will take you to the library." Nadia was glad Cindy was there for her. She smiled in return. From that day onwards, Cindy and Nadia became the best of friends.

Answer the questions carefully. Write in complete sentences.

53. Name one thing that Cindy does that makes her feel like an adult.

54. Why did Cindy's teacher introduce Nadia to the class?

55. Why were Cindy's friends unwilling to play with Nadia during recess?
