

BA EXAMINATION 2002
HEBR B109
The Peace Process in Modern Israeli Politics, 1967-2000

Answer THREE of the following questions. All questions carry equal marks.

1. Assess the various roles of the United States in the peace process between 1967 and 1978.
2. To what extent did the origins of the October 1973 War lie in the outcome of the 1967 War?
3. To what extent did the electoral victory of the Likud in 1977 lead to changes in Israeli foreign policy between 1977-1979?
4. Compare and contrast the performance of the pre-rotation National Unity Government (1984-86) with that of the post-rotation National unity Government (1986-88).
5. To what extent has there been a decline in the importance of ideology in Israeli politics? Make reference to the peace process.
6. Choose TWO of the following unsuccessful peace plans and discuss their significance to internal Israeli politics:
  - The Rogers Plan
  - The London Agreement
  - The Rabin –Shamir Peace Plan
7. Examine the impact of the Lebanon War on Israeli political society.
8. Explain the importance of the religious parties during the 1990's in determining the speed and direction of the peace process.
9. Discuss the role of the Persian Gulf War of 1991 in changing Israeli positions towards the peace process.
10. Assess the short-term consequences of the murder of Yitzhak Rabin on Israel's ability to make peace with the Arabs.

END OF PAPER