PLANNING IN PRACTICE

RE-SIT EXAMINATION: SEPTEMBER 2003

ANSWER THREE QUESTIONS

1. What do you consider to be the main aims of the current modernisation efforts of UK planning from a central government perspective?
2. Is the ever-expanding agenda of planning making it impossible for the profession to retain its 'self-contained' professional image and does it matter?
3. What evidence is there that the European Spatial Planning Development Perspective (ESDP) is having an impact on UK town and country planning?
4. The London Plan is the Mayor's vision for the future of the capital. To what extent should this be the case and to what degree has the formulation of the plan been associated with effective public consultation and participation?
5. Are the new regional planning agencies adding value to planning in the UK? In your response, make specific reference to the work of SEERA as a working example.
6. What are the critical factors that will enable the Thames Gateway to successfully deliver the government's regeneration vision for the area?
