PAPER ENVSGX11:   Principles and Practices of Cosmopolitan Development (2001/02 Session)

DURATION: 3 hrs.

Answer THREE questions only, at least ONE from each section A and B.
All questions carry equal marks.

Section A

Q1.   Why are minority and immigrant groups so often regarded as a 'problem' for urban policy, planning and management?

Q2.   Using a city of your choice, discuss the reactions of selected local cultural communities, or 'place-based' traditions, to the impact of globalisation.

Q3.   How inclusive of diverse cultures are existing forms of 'cultural policy' and 'urban regeneration'. Discuss with examples

Q4.   Is cultural planning: of, for, in, or beyond 'development'? Argue for the idea which you believe to be most persuasive

Q5.   What in your view is the most adequate definition of 'cosmopolitanism' for the purposes of advancing cosmopolitan development and planning?

Section B

Q6.   What are the major 'principles' of 'cosmopolitan development' and how do they reinforce each other to create a coherent basis for urban policy, planning and management?

Q7.   What types of planning interventions, programmes and projects contribute to the practical implementation of any one principle of cosmopolitan development?

Q8.   What methods and techniques are required for a process of 'cosmopolitan development planning'?

Q9.   How does the concept of cosmopolitan development planning extend the conventional 'agenda' of urban policy, planning and management?

Q10. Using a city of your choice, illustrate any existing programmes or institutions which you can identify as potential contributors to promoting cultural development and intercultural co-existence.
